

Technically competent

- aspires to international standard with concern for impact

Ethical

- clear and strong core values and audit function
- governance structures fostering transparency and accountability; and effective internal audit
- wellbeing of clients and staff paramount

Sustainable

- innovative, but with strong risk management
- robust grants management
- viable business model

By all stakeholders, especially :

- communities served
- national/local governments
- project partners
- funders and regional/global organisations
- emergency responders – international/national

Internally by : staff, students, and researchers at institution

- Research organisations
- Training organisations
- Service delivery organisations
- Logistics organisations
- Medical and nursing schools
- Labs
- Cooperatives (?)

Public & private sector ... all strategically committed to supporting national policies